Strong Growth Prompts New Addition at Precision Labs

WAUKEGAN, III. (December 20, 2007) – Precision Laboratories, Inc. announced the addition of Jennifer McGrail to the Ag Sales Team. McGrail will assume the role of district sales manager in Indiana.

“Jennifer brings a lot of experience and a successful track record to Precision,” said James Reiss, vice president of agricultural business for Precision Laboratories. “We’re excited about the level of expertise that she can offer her customers.” McGrail will be responsible for introducing and developing the Indiana market for Precision’s best-of-class product portfolio of innovative adjuvants and seed enhancement technologies.

McGrail holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Agribusiness Marketing and Management with a minor in Agronomy and Environmental Science from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Penn. She has more than 10 years of experience in agricultural sales, including five years of management experience.
