Strong Growth Prompts Territory and Personnel Addition at Precision Labs

WAUKEGAN, IL (July 11, 2008) – Precision Laboratories, Inc. announced the addition of Lance Brillon to its Ag Sales Team. Brillon will assume the role of associate district manager in Missouri, Southern Illinois, Arkansas and Tennessee.

“Lance brings solid experience and a successful track record to Precision,” said James Reiss, vice president of agricultural business for Precision Laboratories. “We’re excited about the level of expertise that he can offer his customers.”

Brillon will be responsible for supporting Precision's district managers in introducing new products and supporting ag retailers in developing new markets for Precision's best-of-class product portfolio of innovative adjuvants and seed enhancement technologies.

Brillon holds a Bachelor's Degree in Agriculture, Crop Science from the University of Saskatchewan. Lance has more than ten years of experience in agricultural sales, including positions at Novartis Crop Protection, Cargill Wholesale, and Tiger Industries.
